NCASI Regional Meetings and Workshops

NCASI Regional Meetings and Workshops are important forums connecting NCASI technical studies and local regulatory activity to real-time issues impacting facilities. The agenda for this workshop (below) includes two timely topics. The morning session will provide an update on recent developments in the area of Per- and Polyfluoroalkyl Substances (PFAS), including information specifically useful to pulp and paper mills. The afternoon session will focus on development of facility air toxics emission inventories, including data selection, common issues, and example exercises. Meeting attendees can leverage learnings from these sessions toward addressing operational issues and more efficiently managing environmental obligations.

Registration Fees

- $75 for Members and Sustaining Members
- $50 for Government Agency Staff and Academics
Fees will be waived for government agency staff participating on the agenda.

The registration fee is used to defray part of the costs of food, beverage, and meeting rooms. Fees are payable by credit card online, or by check at the meeting or mailed in advance to the West Coast Regional Center. We cannot accept credit card payments at the meeting. Register for the workshop online.
